

Hiddenbed is growing in Universities

University at Buffalo (New York) and University of the Virgin Islands join the list of International Universities that chooses Hiddenbed.

JUNE, 2009

In less than a year, there are already many Universities that have chosen to join Hiddenbed, with the aim of improving their student quality of life by providing them comfort and innovation in their residence halls.

Between these Universities we found:

- * Stanford University, California
- * Texas Tech in Lubbock, Texas
- * Tarleton State University, Texas
- * University at Buffalo, New York
- * University of Virgin Islands, Virgin Islands
- * Virginia Tech University, Virginia

Tarleton State University, Texas

University of Stanford, California

With Hiddenbed, Universities are optimizing their Space in Residence Halls, and can receive a higher amount of students per year.

CONGRATULATIONS TO PAUL AND DIANE AND THEIR EXCELLENT WORK!
